Courtney and Kaleb Stonehouse along with Amberlynn Roll from Thornapple Credit Union with a proposal to bring a mobile banking unit to the Village. Charlie Newcombe to observe. Brandon Strong Republican nominee for the 78th district.

President's Comments, Updates and other Business:

- A. Mike Callton from BC Board of Commissioner's with a monthly update.
- B. Gutter covers project. There have been some issues with the Company so President Sandbrook contacted Guilford the original installers and they are coming to fix the concession stand gutters on the north side and whatever needs repair on the south side at no cost. A bid was presented for work on the pavilion which will be discussed at the next meeting.
- C. Village of Woodland Insurance renewal due 09/01/2026. The price has increased.
- D. Lawn Tractor purchase discussion. Bid will be ready for the September meeting.

- E. Millage renewals all passed.
- F. Labor Day Association update.
- G. Update on Tree situation at Martins.
- H. Village Credit Card in progress.

Business before the Council:

3. Motion by A. Barry, seconded by D. Durkee, to allow Thornapple Credit Union to set up a portable mobile banking unit at one of two sites, once a week to start, beginning 2027. MCU

DPW Report:

- 1. Holes in the road taken care of.
- 2. Concrete work will begin this week or next.
- 3. Alley re-graded and signs up.
- 4. Cable installation going well.
- 5. Big tree in the back of the Village park is hollow on the inside and will need to be taken down this fall.
- 6. Lights will be up on the concession stand this week.

Trustee Concerns:

- 1. Mike Beach conveying for Ben Geiger who had to leave before speaking-Ben would like to start a community group to discuss the closed Woodland School and possibilities for the building.
- 2. Drew with a concern about some cement repair work.

7. Motion by J. Kennedy, seconded by A. Barry, to adjourn the meeting at 7:50 pm. MCU

Respectfully Submitted,

Laurie Duits
